

Prayer diary July 2021

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
				1. Thank God for our recent purchase of textbooks through the BMA Information Fund Grant. May many people benefit from these resources in the Philippines.	2. The Health & Justice track participants meet this evening and tomorrow. Please pray they may be challenged and inspired as they learn about healthcare behind bars.	3. Please pray for our team in the Philippines, for protection during the ongoing Covid-19 pandemic. Thank God that we have been able to return to running telemedicine clinics.
4. On this day of rest, pray our team may have time to renew and recuperate for the week ahead	5. Take time to reflect on a relevant news article about injustice and pray for those involved. May God guide your heart to how you may advocate for the vulnerable in this situation.	6. Thank God all our new team members are settling in. May we continue to bond in fellowship as we serve together.	7. Thank God that the first transaction to purchase Olongapo House in the Philippines has been successful. Please pray that as we continue to make payments for this property, that further transactions will go smoothly.	8. We see many people suffering with mental health issues whilst detained in prison. Please pray for them and the health professionals working with them.	9. Thank God for all the generous donations provided during our #CoronaCash Appeal. This has allowed us to continue our work during this difficult time.	10. Please pray that people will apply for both the 2021 Health & Justice Training Track, and the Health & Justice Fellowship programme so we may continue to train people in the care of vulnerable patient groups.
11. Please pray for all those detained without access to legal representation or adequate care and food. May they know God's peace, presence, and comfort in the difficulties and challenges they face.	12. Please pray for COVID-19 vaccine equity, that all countries work collaboratively to protect everyone and reach the poorest nations globally.	13. Our UK board of directors meet this evening. Please pray for wisdom and guidance as they make decisions about the draft 2022-2024 strategic plan and other key topics.	14. Please pray for our team working to develop more resources, in both written and video formats, to train healthcare professionals about vulnerable patient groups.	15. Please pray for the criminal justice systems that operate around the globe, may they work towards creating fairer and better societies.	16. We believe in a God of justice; as we pray into those situations of injustice may we receive God's hope, so we might fight on behalf of the poor and oppressed.	17. Today marks International Justice Day. Pray that broken systems and governments will be healed and peace will come to victims of injustice globally.
18. Thank God that we have begun to build a relationship with the officers in the female dorms of the Filipino jail we work with. Pray the approval goes ahead for telemedicine clinics here.	19. Please pray for the relatives of those who are detained, that they might know God's comfort during this time as they cannot visit their loved ones in prison.	20. Please pray for our expertise service as we continue to work with many countries in providing knowledge and engage with them to help inform policy.	21. Please continue to pray as we work towards transforming into a charitable organisation in the UK, may this process be smooth and quick.	22. So many incarcerated women spend their days behind bars fretting about their children who may be free but who are not safe. Please pray these mothers may know God's comfort and their children remain safe.	23. Thank God that we have so many wonderful partnerships with other organisations that support our work.	24. Please pray for victims of ill-treatment and torture, for physical, psychological and spiritual healing, and for those that advocate on their behalf to bring justice.
25. Please pray for all those that sit on our board of reference, thank God for their wisdom and expertise that help us with specialist advice as we serve our clients.	26. Please pray for our application for funding grants to be able to continue our work in Europe.	27. Please give thanks for our partnership with the University of Leeds and all the students we have met. Pray we might be able to build further connections with other universities through our training programmes.	28. Thank the Lord for the prayers of all those who support us and the work we do.	29. Many prisoners have been unable to have visitors since the start of the pandemic, please pray for comfort and peace as they face a difficult time of isolation.	30. Please pray for victims of modern slavery this World Day Against Trafficking in Persons. As awareness is raised, may solutions be found to prevent human trafficking.	31. As we reflect on the past month and look forward to the next one, we remember God's faithfulness and we trust in His goodness for our lives, our work and for every person we interact with in our services.

Rejoice always, pray continually, give thanks in all circumstances (1 Thessalonians 5:16-18)
